Wins Sectional Cage Crown

North Chicago Nips Shamrocks

By Dale Hoffmann

North Chicago led, but it was the first round of the state basketball final Friday after narrowly winning a St. Patrick ambush in the Arlington Sectional.

THE ERATIC War Hawks needed some help. Second rounder from forward Empire State, they were the Shamrocks, 56-55, the first victory against the Shamrocks in the last seven years.

North Chicago will meet Homestead in the first round of the state tournament in the Evanston section tomorrow at McGraw Hill.

Roselli, a 6-2 senior brought the Hawks' ticket to Evanston when he dropped a 21-point lead with eight seconds left on the clock Friday. It was the spring-loaded forward's only bucket of the night, and it came just over seconds after Tony Bertetta had given St. Pat on first lead of the second half on a two-point rebound shot.

Roselli's crucial fender helped a hasty ending on what could have been one of the greatest chapters in North Chicago's cage history. The Warriors entered Friday's match on top-heavy defense and were nearly chased off the floor by the North Chicago Shamrocks in the first quarter.

THEY CAME BACK from a 21-0 deficit in about five minutes, eight minutes after they lost a four-point lead with a quarter to go and then almost lost a tournament berth on a two-point final frame.

If the Hawks had been grounded the would have beat themselves and a 6-0 sharpshooter named Cedric Martin, who was named Captain Martin, North Chicago defense with 22 points, most of which came in the last five minutes.

He returned home eight of 16 shots from the floor for 50 per cent, which was just what he needed. Pat had his team.

NORTH CHICAGO trailed in that department with a 41 per cent figure from the floor and was starting even harder in the rebound category, which was the difference in the last five minutes.

But then Martin dropped, and North Chicago had a couple things going for them.

AND WOODS gave North Chicago the most dangerous offensive weapon on the floor by fanning in 24 points, 6-3 senior also led the Big Red in rebound with eight.

Woods was especially rated as the first quarter, picking up half of his team's points in the first quarter, and then he was way out of a cold-shoot.

St. Patrick took advantage of North Chicago's legal shenanigans and scored 25-14 before the closing seconds of the second period.

Woods and Company began to use a little daylight in the second quarter, though and shared lead to 36-34 at intermission.

THE THIRD quarter brought a 21-0 deficit in about five minutes, eight minutes after they lost a four-point lead with a quarter to go and then almost lost a tournament berth on a two-point final frame.

City Hall, Utility Tax Major Issues

City Hall expansion and utility tax were the major issues of contention last night as candidates for the City of Arlington elections. The candidates for the City of Arlington are: Mayor William J. Meyer, Jr., who will lead the POP ticket on the ballot at the April 18 election, said the utility tax is "the most logical and feasible way to gain revenue." And the City of Progress (POP), answering one of the questions submitted by the homeowning group, during the meeting did call for a five per cent utility tax and acquisition of land for a new city hall.

And the Citizens Action Party (CAP) opposed the tax and urged a second floor job to add to the present city hall. Mayor William J. Meyer, Jr., who will lead the POP ticket on the ballot at the April 18 election, said the utility tax is "the most logical and feasible way to gain revenue." And the City of Progress (POP), answering one of the questions submitted by the homeowning group, during the meeting did call for a five per cent utility tax and acquisition of land for a new city hall.

Meyer said the CAP counter, Roland Meyer, contended that the tax, which could be levied on the city, instead could be levied on the county. GOP Club To Meet Thursday

The Whelan Township Republican Club will hold its monthly meeting on Thursday, March 16, at 8 p.m. at the Veterans of Foreign Wars clubhouse, 111 N. York Ave., Arlington Heights, at 815 p.m. Thursday.

Clean Andrews, 2008 Hawthorn, is the guest speaker. He is the executive director of the City of Chicago's Office of Economic Opportunity.

Herbert (Pete) Boudreau, of 501 N. Duane, Arlington Heights, RAC president, said, "I do not know anything about the club's program and cannot say."

Subdivision Fireplaces Stir Feats

The village board, in a difficult position, is in the controversy. Ryan said, because the Village Board is not a part of Arlington Heights, it is not bound by the village's rules.

RYAN said estimates of the cost of repairs for the fireplaces have run from $100 to $400 per fireplace and higher.

"If you multiply this by 30 to 40 you have a sizable amount of money," he said. "We may try to work out some sort of compromise to prevent homes from coming down by paying all of it."

Juvenile Court System Revised

New procedures for the handling of juveniles in the Circuit Court of Cook County have been issued by judges and Arlington Heights.

The objects of the change is to "minimize delays and to expedite the police of juveniles, complaints and witnesses involved in proceedings in the juvenile division." Dahl explained in a letter to judges.

The new procedure requires that the juvenile court be held in the morning when it appears that the juvenile is in the best interests of the minor or the community and that a station attorney be present as an appropriate method of disposition.

provide a wider driving lane, but not an additional lane. It takes more time for drivers, and for women, to parallel park than to dismount, park, blocking the driving lanes. I suggest that drivers longer use these streets as thru-traffic use a different route to their destination. Or, another solution is to have the streets joining towns, thus losing their tax dollars? People have a tendency to take the easiest course and if parking is harder or non-existent, where will they go?

We would also have to foot the bill for removing parking meters or reorganizing them.

Do you think it is reasonable to reduce parking facilities to make more facilities are needed? Is it economical to spend money on a project which will result in reduced sales tax revenue? What are the lawmakers of our town going to do?

Caucus Trustee Candidates Hammer Out Platform

Arlington Heights Caucus candidates for the village board this week pledged support to current village efforts to solve the problems of transportation, taxation, and community improvement.

The campaign platform of Caucus nominees John Walsh, Charles Bremer, and Kenneth Douglas suggested an air of optimism and desire to accomplish significant steps to meet community needs.

Included were statements of support for the Arlington Heights R.D. and the Union Township, a department of railroad tracks or an express plan involving both the Arlington Heights R.D. and the Union Township.

Northern Hwy. intersection and the General Highway Road.

The transportation problems will continue to grow as the village takes forward-looking steps to meet the needs of the future.

The candidates said, "We are the highway area now," they stressed.

The Chicago & North Western Railroad problem deserves careful study but the serious possible decision.

THE PLATFORM called for continued effort to such a traffic situation for land which the village has not made for its dual purpose.

"We recognize the village desperately needs a broader tax base and will work diligently toward that end," the candidates said.

They also see the improvement of the downtown area as a move to bring additional tax revenue to the village.

In connection with downtown facilities, the candidates will fight for expanded and improved mental facilities and services, a centrally located and self-sufficient cultural center and a stipulation of both community and shopper parking, supported by efforts of the central business community.

On the question of water, the Caucus nominees will urge the adoption of new wells as they are needed to help keep the village in the DAM' water community.

"It is most important that Arlington Heights create a financial position that would permit the village to act as a free condition to meet its needs," the candidates said.

Walsh, Bremer, and Douglas pledged support to the efforts of the Board of Community Development, but the village government must be willing to do as they see fit.

The candidates saw no easy solutions to the above mentioned problems. "I suppose it would be a more appealing platform if we promised lower taxes and no answer (practical or impractical) to the candidates' candidates would find it hard to sell. They maintain that their budget for 1968, which includes some 20 items of combined state, federal and local funds, bonds, payments, zoning boards, other voters' their best selection at the time. Walsh is presently a member of the village board.

Dist. 25 Seeks Federal Grant

The Arlington Heights Elementary School Board has approved the administration's request to seek federal funds to purchase library books and other instructional materials.

The state superintendent of public instruction has available for schools in the district about $23,561.90. Purchased schools may receive about one fourth based on a grant of $1.00 per pupil.

The money is part of an appropriation granted under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (P.L. 89-101). Title II, Section 222, allows Title II funds to be used to purchase instructional materials, books, encyclopedias, periodicals, personal materials and maps and globes.

Under Title II of the law, ownership of the materials remains in the public school district while they are shared with private schools.

PARCHMENT, which has been suggested non-voluntary materials, the district has approved the purchase of materials based on the standards of the Illinois Library Act and curriculum areas to be completed.

Conditions of the grant include the requirement that receiving districts improve their program over a five-year period and that federal money not be used to replace local funds.

Deadline for filing the application is March 31. Schools in the district include Doyle, Greenview, Ivy Hill, Kensington, North, Park, Patton, Ridge, Westgate, Wilson, Windsor, and South, Thomas and Miller High schools.

76 Receive 'Household' Pay Hikes

Seventy-six teachers in Arlington Heights Elementary School District No. 25 will receive annual pay increases of $400 per year, according to a new salary schedule approved by the board of education.

The added allowances will add $30,000 to the district's salary bill.

The 76 teachers receiving the increase are about 10 percent of the 360 certificated staff in the district.

Of these receiving the increase, 22 are in the elementary schools, 53 are in the high schools, 5 are completing their tenure or probationary period and 18 are on probationary status.

SOME MEMBERS of the district board of education have indicated the need for a salary schedule. The board is now considering the need for a salary schedule.

Youth Center Board to Form

Students seeking to establish an area Youth Center met and unanimously adopted a constitution last night.

The student board of representatives from seven high schools have to contract and offer a Youth Center for students of Dist. 214 and parochial schools.

The constitution adopted last night provides for the election of a student board. Each school in the area will be represented on the board in proportion to its size. One representative from each of the 300 students will be elected.

"We've taken a big step forward," said the Rev. Lawrence J. Carroll, of Arlington Heights Lutheran Church, who presided at the meeting. "We've taken a big step forward," said the Rev. Lawrence J. Carroll, of Arlington Heights Lutheran Church, who presided at the meeting.

Gripe Of The Day

Why don't they wrap the candy cane used for the Easter egg hunt. They are placed on the ground and children are not allowed to eat them.

AT MONDAY night's meeting the students also heard the first prize of $100. 214 high schools had responded enthusiastically to the plan.

The Rolling Meadows City Council Tuesday night agreed to send what City Attorney D. Heinger termed an "unintentional nightmare."

Chamber Asks Parking Study

The Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce will ask the 90-day study in changing downtown parking from development to parking.

Decision to study the study was made by the chamber's executive committee at a meeting Tuesday night.

The village proposes to change parking along Campbell and portions of DuSable. The study will ask for the study.

The chamber will be the person of Dr. Mark Edward M. Gilbert of Arlington Heights. Gilbert is town superintendent of the school district.

Legislative hearings into the feasibility of granting zoning prerogatives to municipalities would make a decision in two weeks.

The board plans to continue the study. The board plans to continue the study.

Park Budget Higher In Tentative Draft

The Arlington Heights Board of Park Commissioners Tuesday approved a tentative 1967-68 budget of $123,940 and the certification of two candidates in the April election.

Charles B. Cronin, board president, and Joseph R. Brainerd, of 214 S. DuSable, are the two proposed candidates.

However, there will be a 10 percent increase in the park budget. The 1966-67 budget of the park district is $115,000.

The board passed a resolution to set up a park district. The board passed a resolution to set up a park district.

$1,414 in Building Work at 2 Schools

Extra construction work at two Arlington Heights elementary schools will cost $1,414. The school board Monday authorized payment to two firms for building work.

Rich Engineering Inc. was awarded $200 for the installation of television service outlet boxes at Thomas Junior High School and Four Contractors Inc. was to be paid $1,214 for installing two 12-foot "T" beams and other necessary work at South Junior High School.

The television outlets were needed, according to Assistant Superintendent Robert E. Campbell, because five rooms, not called "classrooms" by Arlington High School, usually were lacking the needed service.

Campbell said the consultant, who was paid $500, did not include the five rooms in detailed specifications for the television installation.

He said the $40 per unit cost seemed reasonable and would be paid for out of the district's instructional resources center fund.

AT SOUTH Junior High School, the "T" beams were needed, Campbell explained, because contractors had discovered a crack in the concrete deck over the cafeteria, where the library materials center will be located.

The crack was discovered, Campbell said, when the roof over the cafeteria was removed before beginning construction of the new library facility.

"This situation could lead to a major repair problem," he said, "and work now could prevent this."

Other schools in the district include Dryden, Dunbar, Dwyer, Greenbush, Ivy Hill, Kensington, North, Olive Park, Patton, Ridge, Waukegan, Wilson, Windsor and Misses Junior High School.

John R. Hogue (left) of 1837 N. Kasper, Arlington Heights, was recently installed as vice president of St. Procopius College's Institute of Management by the college president, Father Roman Gallucci (center). Hogue is personnel director of the Chicago division of the National Tea Co. Will Engelling (right) of Engle was installed as president of the institute.

Pupil Suspension Policy Set

A district policy on student suspension has been approved by the Board of Education of Township High School District 124.

The board adopted the following policy at its Monday meeting.

"The superintendent or the principal of any school is authorized to suspend students guilty of good conduct or misconduct for a period not to exceed seven days or until the next regular meeting of the Board of Education, whichever occurs first."

The policy was approved in accordance with the Illinois School Code. Under the legal provisions of the school code, the principal has been given the authority to suspend students.

Teen Dance To Raise Funds For Memorial

The Town Government celebration of Rolling Meadows will sponsor a dance Saturday to raise money for a memorial to Arlington Heights for 12 years.

Mr. Zentz, Teen Government vice president, said the dance will be held from 7 to 11 p.m. at the Rolling Meadows Community Center, 1000 N. LaSalle St., Arlington Heights. Tickets are $2.

Scheduled to appear are three musical groups, the "Hans," "The Unknown," and "The Unknown." Zentz said profits will be given to a memorial to the city's war dead.

February Savings Set Record

February was a record savings month at the Arlington Heights Federal Savings & Loan Association, Inc.

During the month, net savings totaled more than $500,000, highest level for any February since the firm began in 1953.

Public awareness of possible higher interest rates, in conjunction with the rising cost of funds, are possible reasons for an increased interest in savings accounts, Collins said.

Arlington Heights Federal held 21,000 savings accounts with a total of $17,000,000 as of Feb. 28. Total assets are approximately $44,000,000.

Agencies Tell Need For Funds

Representatives of seven service agencies were interviewed by the Rolling Meadows Community Center board of directors at a formal hearing March 4.

Among points considered were past, present and future fiscal requirements of the agencies, the nature of services provided, the areas served, the extent of public benefits and the justifications of the agencies' requests for Community Chest funds.

The five-hour meeting was held at the Clubbrook Center for the Retarded.

2 'Loyalty' Bills Get Backing

Members of the Board of Education of Township High School District 214 adopted a resolution to support two House bills that will be presented in the Illinois State Legislative Assembly.

Board members approved the resolution Monday night "to support House Bills 384 and 385, the 'Loyalty' bills, in support of teachers and other employees in the State of Illinois."

House Bill 384 would amend the "loyalty" code and change the test of the loyalty oath so that candidates need only swear or affirm to support the Constitution of the United States and the State of Illinois. New candidates must swear that they are not Communists.

House Bill 385 would amend an act that requires state employees to sign an affidavit that they support the U.S. and state constitutions. Now they must sign an affidavit that they are not Communists.

THE STATEMENTS will be made by Representative Eugene Schickman, Eugene Chapman and David Rogers.

All members of the Board of Education were present to support the resolution. They are: W.W. Armstrong, president; Earl Thompson, secretary, and members Mrs. Leah Cantamara, Frank Smith, Raymond Erickson, Richard Benhaber, and Arthur Aronson.

Schools in Dist. 214 are Arlington Heights, Evanston, Wheeling, and Elk Grove High Schools.

Elk Grove Quartet Tops

Members of the Elk Grove High School boys' quartet received a rating of "excellent" in the state solo and quartet music contest held Saturday at Prospect High School.

The five boys quartet are Tom Doyle, George Pappas, Rich Roha, and Chuck Carter.

Prospect High School student Larry Sorensen received a rating of "superior" in a solo performance.

Students from more than 35 schools participated in the competition.

"Preston in the Sky," created by the Arlington Heights Garden Club received the second place award in the Garden City Class of the Chicago World Flower Show.

The Arlington Heights Garden Club received the second place award for their exhibit "Preston in the Sky" entered in the Garden City Class of the Chicago World Flower Show at the International Amphitheatre.

The exhibit, inspired by the Dutch painter Pieter Mondriaan, is a garden of the future with the design remaining constant throughout the season. It is a geometric design using "the primary colors — red, yellow and blue with sculpture and a black reflection pool completing the design."

The spring garden consists of yellow primroses, red tulips, blue catkins for sun bathing and an artificial palm in the pool. The summer garden replaces the tulips with red geraniums and the primroses with white and pink marigolds. The fall garden replaces the marigolds with yellow mums. During the winter the primary colors are carried out in colored stone rather than flowers.

MEMBERS exhibiting are Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Mrs. C. E. Carter, Mrs. Wayne Hesch, Mrs. Joseph Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Krohn and Mrs. Charles Moore. Mrs. C. E. Carter, a member of the Garden Club of Illinois Flower Show committee, the exhibition in the international class, "Shadows of the City," by actually accredited flower show judges. The show on effect was created by the use of sixteen color spot lights. Mrs. Carter interpreted Navy Pier, using glass material to create the effect of ropes, waves and skyline, and she received an Award of Appreciation from the Garden Club of Ill.

Allied Arts Group To Hear Reviewer

Members of the Allied Arts of Arlington Heights will hear Vera Bantz Ward review three Broadway plays at 1:15 p.m. Thursday, March 16 at the Arlington Heights Savings & Loan Assn.

Mrs. Ward's program, entitled "A Broadway Sampler," will review "I Do, I Do," "Dinner at Eight," and "Hogan's Goat." "I Do, I Do," is the musical starring Mary Martin and Robert Petric, based on the play, "The Fourposter." "Dinner at Eight" stars Walter Pidgeon, Jane Hovine, Adlene Francis, and Jeffrey Lynn in the Kaufman and Alfred drama, "Hogan's Goat," is written by William Ashford about Irish-American politics at the turn of the century and the poignant love story that.

Mrs. Bantz has appeared in stock theaters in New York and with most of the theatre companies in the Chicago area. She appeared for three years on the NBC-TV drama "Hawaii Five-O" in the role of Mrs. April as well as on her own show, "A Week from Vera." In the radio drama, "Story of Mary, Mother," she was heard as Susan Mitchell.

Vera Bantz Ward is married to the Rev. Dr. Donald B.

Re-Zoning Hearings Scheduled

Two county zoning hearings have been scheduled in Palatine Township concerning re-zoning of parcels of land for commercial development.

The hearings will be held starting at 3 p.m. on Monday, March 27 in the Palatine Village Hall.

The first case involves 9.9 acres belonging to Nicholas and located at the north side of Algonquin Rd. about 1.300 feet east of R-2.

Proposed use of the property according to the zoning ordinance for the plaintiffs, is a cocktail lounge and restaurant.

The report is to return the land from R-2 (single family) to R-4 (general service).

IN THE second hearing, Joseph J. J. is requesting to change of 1.8 acres from R-3 (single family) to R-4 (general service).

The property is located on the northwest corner of Elm and Northwest Hwy. Proposed use of this land is according to attorney Ward F. Fisher, is for retail stores.

Tax Tip
Your income tax return this year need not be filed until April 17. The customary deadline is April 15 in a Saturday.

Budget Requests Exceed Income

The Rolling Meadows City Council finance committee chairman said a $4 million tax hike and a 2 per cent utility tax are needed to balance the city's books.

AM James E. Watson (in) said preliminary budget requests—what city departments want to spend—total about $940,000. This would be more than $700,000 in excess of revenue predicted for 1967-68 by his committee.

Watson stressed that the $940,000 figure is not definite, since he estimated budget requests and cost of city hall expansion, the allocated $135,000 to the library and $50,000 to the city hall expansion.)

And he added, "We haven't tried to show any of the figures down yet."

"But," he said, "we're going to provide the necessary spread the money, we're going to have to find the revenue somewhere."

WATSON said that while his committee would submit the budget requests to a report to the full council at its meeting, which is scheduled to meet on an immediately.

"I don't think there's going to be much talking about this until after the election," he said. "I'm know, raising taxes is a tough thing."

Watson is not up for reelection, but Donald C. Wade (4th ward) and Emilio Garcia (5th ward) and John J. Schwaner (1st ward) are running for city trustee. Mayor William Minkus and City Clerk Catherine Dettl are also candidates.

The finance committee last week presented a 1967-68 city revenue of $747,500, and estimated property tax income, which will be between $90,000 and $100,000. Using the $940,000 budget request as a guide, the city must either pick up $100,000 in income or trim its expenses.

The 1966-67 budget appropriations totaled $979,000, but this included a $200,000 budgeting project that has been completed. And actual expenditures for the year will be under $1,000,000, according to city manager R.D. Heninger.

AS OF Jan. 1, the city had some $617,961. The fiscal year ends April 30.

The amount appropriated represents a promise by the city government that, much money among the city's expenditures, but if the Council cannot find enough money, it must rely on some of the promises.

Horoscope

FOR THURSDAY
PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 21) - Avoid any strenuous criticism of others or their work. Unless you can offer something constructive, best to remain silent.

ARIES (March 22 - April 20) - Unusual circumstances demand that you make an effort to remain uninvolved in another's problems. Keep your distance.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) - Stick to routine matters this morning and you should have both the time and the energy to deal with an exceptional opportunity in afternoon.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) - A number of problems may be different for your solution today. Choose wisely which you will be concerned with.

CANCER (June 22 - July 21) - Best to stay clear of new contacts at this time. You could easily come into difficulties with a persuasive old friend.

LEO (July 22 - Aug. 23) - Test it what you do and what you say should keep you free of today's pitfalls, especially where personal relationships are involved.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) - Accept rewards is all modern you may well be so wanted father. Don't neglect to share the credit with someone who is due.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) - Avoid the complications that can arise mostly out of a confusing day. Refuse to be made into any decisions.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 23) - Though tempers of others may fly both at home and at work, keep your own under control and all should be well into any decisions.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 - Dec. 23) - Everything may not go exactly as planned today. Avoid disappointment by looking forward to a smoother day and better results.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 - Jan. 20) - Refuse to be the buffer between two conflicting forces. Let others fight out their differences for themselves today.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) - Minor ambitions stand excellent chance for fulfillment today. Don't rush major issues, however, or you may face setbacks.

Park District Dances Swing with Mod Beat

Left-Arlington swings, like a pendulum swing. That's what the junior high school students who attended the park district's dances at Recreation Park last weekend did. The park district is sponsoring a junior high night each Friday at the park. All village junior high students are invited.

Here (from the left) are Bob Wilson, 14; Jim Hargrave, 14; Kathy Wickham, 13; and Jan Trueman, 13, as they swing out at the most recent park dance.

Silent Consent? School Tax Gets No Protests

G.E. Cornwell, secretary of the Joint Service Program for Meeting 1965 Tax Base Objectives, wrote the Dist. 25 board of education that no objections have been filed to last year's tax rates in the Arlington Heights elementary district.

The district is enrolled in the Joint Service Program at no fee. Schools in the district include Bryn Mawr, DuSable, Dwyer, Greenbush, Ivy Hill, Kensington, North, Olive, Park, Patton, Ridge, Weagan, Wilson, Windsor and South. Mayor and Thomas Junior high schools.

Forced Off Road: Driver

Thomas M. Kane of 1014 E. Thomas, Arlington Heights, reported to police that a truck forced his auto off North-West Hwy. and into a snowpile near Belmont.

The truck driver, Dean Newton of Orland Park, was ticketed by police for improper lane changing.

School Program To Be Evaluated

Hugh E. Jones, chairman of the science department at Arlington High School, has been named chairman of the Self-Evaluation Steering Committee by Bruce Warr, principal of Arlington High School.

The committee will evaluate all phases of the Arlington program in preparation for a visiting committee from the North Central Assn. next year.

The North Central Assn. is the regional accrediting agency for junior and senior high schools. The program of each accredited school is reviewed every seven years by members of the association. A committee will visit Arlington High School during April, 1968.

Other faculty members named to the steering committee include Robert E. Kallan, Virginia Harrod, James Ulrich, Roy D. Post, Kenneth E. Schaller, Donald Schneider and Richard Mueller.

Two black hair wigs are shown. The one on the left is a short, textured wig. The one on the right is a longer, straight wig with a side part.

Shoers made of brush-pigskin will not be harmed soaking. Unlike many other leathers, pigskin keeps its softness and suppleness through wetting and drying. Pigs in good condition after soaking, apply saddle soap or polish when the shoes are dried out. With brushed pigskin, a few quick strokes with a shoe brush will restore the supple texture.

Make a Popcorn Bunny

If our Easter rabbit looks good enough to eat, it is because he is. All pink and white he is perfect for a centerpiece for your Easter table. The rabbit is made of fluffy from popcorn and popped in its own fat and combined with crisp syrup and marshmallows.

For him to be a bunny on a nest of tinted coconuts and surround him with popcorn eggs or nests made of these meaty noodles, butter and brown sugar stuffed with soft-boiled eggs.

EASTER RABBIT AND EGGS

- 1 package pop-in-a-pan popcorn
- 1 tablespoon water
- 3/4 cup light corn syrup
- 2 cups sifted confectioners sugar
- 14 large marshmallows
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Pop corn according to package directions. Put popped corn, corn syrup and 1-1/2 cups confectioners sugar. Cook uncovered over low heat until bubbly, stirring occasionally. Stir in remaining sugar. Remove from heat. Stir in marshmallows and vanilla, continuing to stir until marshmallows are melted. Pour syrup over popped corn (corn quickly will all corn is well coated with wet pressed hands, mold into desired shapes.

TO MAKE RABBIT: Form rabbit's body by shaping syrup coated popcorn into a larger egg about 7 inches x 4 inches. For the head, shape popcorn into a small egg. 3 inches x 2-1/2 inches long. Then, for tail, a 2-inch popcorn ball and

2. 2-inch long pieces for front feet. Assemble rabbit by gently pressing popcorn together. Allow to cool thoroughly.

TO MAKE EASTER EGGS: Make up basic recipe for Easter Rabbit. Divide popcorn into 4 equal parts and set aside. Add a few drops of red food coloring to one part, a few drops of blue to second part, a few drops of green to third part, and a few drops of yellow to fourth part. Add each colored syrup to one part of popped corn and mix until all corn is well coated. Shape each colored batch of popcorn into 4 eggs. Makes 16 Easter Eggs.

TO DECORATE RABBIT: Make up frosting recipe. Tint one-half of it pink and use for decorating ears, nose and mouth. A decorating pink is handy for this. Cut a red gumdrop in half and use for eyes. Cut 2 pipecleaners in half and place 2 on each side of rabbit's head for whiskers. If desired, toothpicks could be used instead of pipecleaners. Frost pipecleaners with pink icing or dip pipecleaners in red food coloring dipped with water. For a final touch add a pink ribbon and bow at the neck.

CREAMY FROSTING

- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 2-1/2 cups sifted confectioners sugar
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream butter until fluffy. Gradually add sugar, continuing to mix until mixture is smooth and creamy. Stir in milk and vanilla. Tint as desired.

Quick Way To Please

Easter noodle nests are a quick to make and sure to please the children. They are made of butter-brown sugar and Chao King chow mein noodles. The combination is unusual and tastes very much like pudding candy.

EASTER NOODLE NESTS

- 1/4 pound butter or margarine
- 1 cup wet packed brown sugar
- 1 can (5 oz.) Chao King chow mein noodles
- Jelly beans or chocolate covered almonds

Melt a cakepot or muffle tin eggs with high-colored paper cupcake liners, set aside. Melt butter in large pan. Stir in brown sugar until completely dissolved. Mix mixture, for 1 minute, stirring constantly. Add chow mein noodles, mix until noodles are thoroughly coated with butter-sugar substance.

Spoon into paper-lined muffin cups; press in each corner with spoon back to form nest. Cool.

Fill cooled nests with jelly beans, chocolate covered almonds or any other small candies resembling eggs. Makes 8 nests.

Alpha Pils Get Award

Alpha Pils International Fraternity has been awarded the Heart and Torch Award by the American Heart Association for 30 years of service and for raising almost $1,000,000. This is the highest award of the American Heart Association and has been presented only twice before. Locally the Northeast Scholastic Alpha Pils alumnae contribute to cardiac research at Children's Memorial Hospital. The alumnae donate their time and services as well as funds raised through benefits.

Alpha Pils alumnae will hear a representative from Children's Memorial Hospital speak on cardiac research at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday, March 22 at the home of Mrs. William Cameron, 516 N. Warren Ave., Park Ridge. Mrs. Robert Nassi will serve as hostess.

All Alpha Pils alumnae are invited to attend this program and may call 688-2526 for transportation or further information.

Cook County Auxiliary To Meet Tonight

Mr. Robert Gurnea, president of the Mount Prospect Cook County Children's Hospital Auxiliary, will conduct tonight's meeting to be held at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jean Harris-Chorne, 116 Derbyshire, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Gurnea has received many donations from their readers and local organizations. She wishes to thank the Anna Circle of St. Paul Lutheran Church for their constant interest. Their most recent donation included Easter toy favors and clothing for 500 pounds of used clothing which will be delivered by the auxiliary to the needy children at Cook County Hospital.

Elected To Lead Sorority

Day by Day

The Allegra Girls

By Catherine O'Donnell

A few years ago when Mrs. R. K. Rogninski of Woodstock was 16 years old and in high school, she and eight girls from her class made a pact. They promised to keep in contact with each other no matter where they went. They called themselves the Allegra Girls.

With the passing of the years the name was changed to The Allegra Club but they've been faithful to the promise to meet in school. They met once a month through those years when you would have thought if you talk to pretty girls they held a whole elephant.

A month ago they decided that their meetings were not productive enough. They felt they should do something for charity and when they looked around they decided to work for the favorite community project, the Arlington Heights Historical Museum.

They held a whole elephant sale.

The only customers were themselves. Most of the whole elephant sale was made in the school. Mrs. Rogninski says they'd exchanged with each other at gift time through the years. It was one of the happiest meetings the club ever had. They netted $22 to send to the museum fund. The other girls in the group are Mrs. Walter Hefert, Mrs. M. J. McElroy, Mrs. Edward Kutas, Mrs. Ruth Kutas, Mrs. William Kutas, Miss Evelyn Meas, Mrs. Sta. Holsten, and Mrs. Paul Holsten.

Irish Information

When you call telephone information in Arlington Heights you might be answered by a voice with the pleasant brogue this side of Ireland itself.

It belongs to Mrs. Benjamin Mack of St. Francis. If any of her four children are ever asked the question, "Did your mother come from Ireland?" they can truthfully answer that she did. She came from Drogheda in County Sligo, 14 years ago. Three years ago she was married to a Chicago Irishman, who is now 13, back to Ireland to meet her grandfather, Patrick Cherry.

The Mack's have been able to make another trip since she did the next time. She goes to the St. Patrick's Day parade in Chicago. Helen and her husband and the other children have missed one country since she came to this country.

The other Mack children are David, 11, Kieran, 9, (who is proud of the fact that his picture was in the first page of The Day) and Michael, 7. When the youngsters talk they don't do it in Irish but they do in a brogue and when you talk to them you know they love the actual parade.

Each year, Ben takes the day off from work and it is a real family holiday. This year Helen will have to rush to make the 1:30 p.m. starting time. Helen will have to rush to make the 1:30 p.m. starting time. Helen will have to rush to make the 1:30 p.m. starting time.

Archery Side

Cochman and guiding lights of the new Arlington Heights movement for a teen center, Ron Wrennager and Mrs. Larry Carroll, took 13 members of the new youth advisory board to Evanston on Saturday.

They went to see the Youth Center located near the center of that city. The other archers with the youth group was Steve Koenig.

Everyone came home with renewed interest and enthusiasm.

Ron told about the young lady who was his guide. She showed them the park. It was a young boy who missed that a point he built even the archers said it couldn't be done. Even in the army school his point is a much adorned part of the huge functional center.

The young people from Arlington Heights on Chairman Jim Smith and Fred Schmidt and Vice Secretary Bill McDowell, Tony Winkelski, Jim Salsbery, Angel Sorini, Jeff Sauer and Eileen O'Brien of Forest View, Angela Rocco and Karen of Sacred Heart, Cheryl Bakulauskas and Dave McElroy of Arlington Heights, John Olson, Nancy Wilson, 1967, and Leslie and Linda of Elk Grove, and Sue Todd of Wheeling.

The Effect of Peace On the Economy

"What will be the psychological effect of peace on buying?"

That was the question raised at a possible Viet Nam withdrawal brought to the minds of the editors of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce's "Triangle News."

The newsletter, dated Feb. 15, outlined, among other things, to ask themselves: "Are my present investments too large for a peace situation? Will the return of the troops... be good enough to ease the mass power situation?"

The publication comments that "now might be a good time to ask these and other questions, and to read on some answers that might mean dollars saved and turned in your particular business."

"There is hardly any question but what the long-range effect of peace will be favorable," according to the "Triangle News."

The question, it concludes, is "just what money do we make the most of a peace agreement, or a trust is announced?"

Jaycees Set Date For Award

The Arlington Heights Jaycees will hold their annual Distinguished Service Award dinner dance on Friday, March 31, at the Indian Lakes Country Club in Bloomington.

The award, sponsored by the Jaycees, is given to a member for outstanding service in the community. The winner will represent Arlington Heights in a national "Ten Outstanding Young Men" selection by the Jaycees.

The group will hold its dance in the Thunderbolt Room of the country club, with music by Robert Hagland's orchestra. Information on the dinner is available from Nancy Thomas, co-chairman, 510 S. Dupont, 226-3767.

Offer New Classes At Parks

Three new adult classes have been added to the spring park program of the Salt Creek Rural Park District, 510 S. William, Palatine.

A seven-week art class on the fundamentals of sketching and printing will begin April 4. Instruction for the course is $5.

Ballroom and round dance instruction will meet Wednesday nights for eight weeks beginning April 5. The registration fee is $4 for each couple.

Leisure interaction will be available to adults and teenagers who will meet Thursday evenings beginning April 6. The seven-week course is for beginners and has a fee of $4.

Those residing outside the park district may also join these classes. Further information is available from Mr. Schneider at 791-4804 or 229-2922.

Tax Tip

Your income tax return this year must not be filed until April 17. The customary deadline (April 15) is a Saturday.

Girl Scouts Seek Funds For Trip

Girl Scouts and their leaders from Arlington Heights Girl Scout Troop 504 are planning a paper drive the week of April 22 and 23.

Mrs. George Morrow, troop leader, says the money troop will be knocking on doors throughout the village on those two days to pick up heads of newspapers and magazines.

Proceeds from the paper drive will be used to finance a trip for troop members during summer's school vacation.

Joseph J. Kovacs, director of flying operations for the 124th Air Refueling Wing, Air National Guard, has been promoted from lieutenant colonel to full colonel. He commanded crews in Illinois, Ohio and Wisconsin. He lives at 429 S. Arlington Heights, during service in World War II he served the Air Medal and the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Horoscope

FOR FRIDAY
PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 21) - Definite gains to be made if you tackle a new project with full energy. Don't expect any miracles, however.
ARIES (March 22 - April 20) - Excellent employment possibilities, whether you remain in your present position or seek a change. Keep an open mind.
TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) - Important matters call for decisive action. Don't delay or you may find that opportunities suddenly vanish.
GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) - You may find yourself slowed down by legal instructions today. You can make up for lost time tomorrow.
CANCER (June 22 - July 22) - Promote new schemes for yourself by seeing to it that others are brought to the attention of the right people.
LEO (July 23 - Aug. 23) - You should be able to maintain a business deal for considerable period today. Take care, however, not to be taken in by a smooth talker.
VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) - Excellent prospects for advancement this morning. Don't trust to luck, however, take the bull by the horns and ask for what you want.
LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) - Where your work brings you into contact with other people, you should have particular success in setting of words.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 23) - Good aspects at home and at work suggest that you take advantage of a day for gain - both material and spiritual.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 - Dec. 23) - Confidence is half the battle in convincing people of your ideas to your success. Don't let others diminish your self-esteem.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 - Jan. 20) - Financial affairs in particular should go well this morning. Take the afternoon off, if possible, and do some consulting.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) - Use morning hours to plan a profit through the continuation of a long-standing business deal. See old friends at once.

THESE FOUNDERS of the Arlington Heights Community Concert Ann, celebrated the organization's 26th anniversary with the membership drive last week. They are, from left, Arthur Frauman, Mrs. Fred Schmeurer, Fred Schmeurer, Mrs. Arthur Frauman, and Thomas O.

Griffith, association president. Griffith reported that the membership drive was highly successful and a capacity audience is expected at each of the five concerts scheduled for the 1967-68 season.

Meet the Good Guys of D.A.R.T.

Police Sgt. Bill Golden, though not one of the Dodge boys, is Rolling Meadows' official "good guy with the white hat," since being recognized with a special safety-type credit degree helmet from the Defense and Rescue Team (D.A.R.T.) squad at Tuesday's council meeting.

The Deputy Director of D.A.R.T. was cited for his contribution to the formation, organization, and training of the 16-man unit by the Administrator/Coordinator of the team, David Hammes. The complete D.A.R.T. was in uniformed attendance and officially introduced to the citizenry at the presentation.

Rolling Meadows headquarters will find the young men of D.A.R.T. knocking at their doors in spring as a house-to-house person-to-person information campaign, well before the turbulent road season.

The disaster team is accepting multi-AND female recruits into their ranks.

THE MEN of the volunteer squad organized last October, finance their uniforms and other paraphernalia out-of-pocket, and spread non-working hours several evenings each week devoted to civil defense knowledge in areas of emergency traffic and crowd control. Fire, rescue techniques, and Red Cross aid.

D.A.R.T. is not so much immediately concerned with multi-AND female recruits as it is with turbulence problems and disaster flight patterns as they occur.

THE DIRECTOR of the CD program in Rolling Meadows

Five Earn Degrees From Loyola

Five men students were among 650 students awarded degrees at the mid-year convocation of Loyola University held in February.

James E. Biermeier, 390 S. Prospect, 34th St., Evanston, Ill., earned a master's degree in chemistry and Philip D. Rasmussen, 1202 E. North, 11th St., Arlington Heights, was awarded a master's of industrial relations degree.

James D. Cullis, 907 Meyer, was awarded a bachelor's degree in marketing and Barry M. O'Neill, 1407 Barberty, received a bachelor's of science degree in English. Both are from Mount Prospect.

A bachelor of science degree in accounting from the University of Chicago was awarded to Earl C. Olsen, 400 Lakeside, Mount Prospect.

Offer Refresher For Nurses

Northwest Community Hospital will offer an "fourth refresher course" for registered nurses, beginning April 10.

The course is designed to provide nurses with a refresher in the profession with an opportunity to learn new techniques and become familiar with equipment presently in use.

Mrs. Mary Dugan, Northwest's executive education director, explained that the seven schools of nursing can be involved in part by bringing in staff back into the profession.

"There have been tremendous changes in procedures and in equipment in the last 10 years," she said. "Nurses who have not worked in several years are sometimes discouraged about coming back to work because they feel unfamiliar with some of these new techniques."

WILLIAM GARDNER of Rolling Meadows, chairman of the Delta Airlines Fair Shares Plan, received a letter from Honorable Tom Meyer (left) of Mount Prospect, and James Mahoney of Chicago, as he holds a citation of merit from Emanuel Grubb, Olson Bus Co. president and chairman of the 1967 Leukemia Drive. The Olson group contribution of $412.00 marked the kickoff of the drive in March.

The "refresher course" was initiated in 1965 to offer first days a week included in the course are seminar courses, lectures, demonstrations, and actual clinical experience.

Previous "refresher course" students have been away from nursing activities for three to 22 years. Mrs. Dugan said it is often difficult for them to attempt to return to nursing on the job without having contact with the professional staff and doing very well. Mrs. Dugan said.

UFOs Are Topic At Men's Meeting

Sherman Larnen, president of the National Phenomenon Committee on Aerial Phenomena, will be the featured speaker at the meeting of the Men's Club of the First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights Monday, March 20.

A social hour will be held from 6:15 to 6:45 p.m. in the church banquet room, followed by dinner and the evening's program.

Larnen will explain the work of the investigative committee, an organization of scientists and citizens interested in the subject of unidentified flying objects. He will illustrate his talk with slides of UFOs.

A performance by the Council-keepers, a barbershop quartet comprised of northwest Illinois residents, will follow the program.

Refreshments will be served and dinner may be made by calling CL 5-0912.

REALTORS
Those Pledged to an Established Code
of Ethics

Realtor - a professional in real estate who, in addition to a strict Code of Ethics is a member of the local and state boards and of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

REALTOR'S PLEDGE

Perhaps the best summary of the high ideals which the Realtor embraces is contained in his Realtor's Pledge:

- I AM A REALTOR
- I Pledge Myself:
- To protect the individual right of real estate ownership and to widen the opportunity to enjoy it;
- To be honorable and honest in all dealings;
- To seek better to represent my clients by building my knowledge and competence;
- To act fairly towards all in the spirit of the Golden Rule;
- To serve well my community, and through it my country;
- To observe the Realtor's Code of Ethics and conform my conduct to its high ideals.

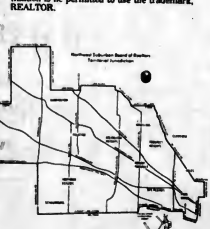

The Realtors Who Advertise On These Pages Stand Ready To Serve You!

BE SURE...

When you are buying or selling real estate, a good way to be sure that you are doing the right thing is to transact your business through a Realtor.

Are you planning to buy or sell real estate? If so, here's the most important fact you should know before making any kind of real estate transaction. It's this: Not every real estate man or woman is a Realtor! You see, Realtors are professional real estate men and women who are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors. These men and women also subscribe to the professional standards of an established code of ethics. What does all this mean? Just this: When you sell - a Realtor is able to tell you accurately what your real estate is likely to bring - and able to market it for you as quickly as conditions warrant. When you buy - a Realtor is able to find property for you which suits your needs and pocketbook. A Realtor is ready and willing to put his storehouse of real estate knowledge and information at your service. Visit or phone him.

A Realtor is not "just another real estate man." He's a member of your local real estate board and thus of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. Only by this affiliation is he permitted to use the trademark, REALTOR.

Did you graduates from Foreman High School in June, 1942? If the answer is "yes" you will want to contact Dr. Arthur Lellean at TE 2-8135 or Irene Fabian Probst at AL 1-9026.

Why? They are planning a class reunion dinner-dance August 5 at Brookwood Country Club in Addison.

Badge Dance Is Club Fare

Members of the Slowpokes Square Dance Club are shining their medals for the Friday Badge Dance at Euclid School. Euclid and Wheeling Rds.

Prizes will be offered for badges earned at the square dance and for a few badges dancers already have. Gene Tidwell will begin calling at 8:30 p.m. The club holds dances the first and third Friday of each month.

Time-up time in the band room gave Prospect High School students Frank Poota (left) of 5 S. Donald, Arlington Heights, and Mike Chakoian of 300 Dale, Mount Prospect, a chance to warm up for Saturday's State Solo and Ensemble Music Contest at Prospect High School.

'Have a Heart' Winners

Mrs. James Glasser of Naperville, guest of Mrs. Gerald Schloemer of Mount Prospect, was awarded the grand prize for high tally in the third annual Gamma Phi "Have a Heart Bridge Tournament".

Each member entertained at least two tables of bridge in her home. High scores were collected and forwarded to bridge chairman Mrs. James Milburn of Park Ridge.

Mrs. William Bright of Park Ridge received second prize. Third prize was won by Mrs. James Glasser, Jr.

Each member entertained at

Three local schools for mentally retarded children, Clearbrook, Countryside Center in Palatine and Northwest Suburban Aid to Mentally Retarded Children, Park Ridge, will each receive a check for $7,000 as a result of the tournament.

Garden Ideas Abound At Flower Show

Local "green - shambers" will be able to pick up many ideas for adaptation in their home gardens at the Chicago World Flower & Garden Show being held through March 19 at the International Amphitheatre.

The Garden Club of Illinois which includes nearly 300 state garden clubs will present an ambitious exhibition program of gardens, arrangements and table settings around the theme, "Chicago - Past, Present, Future."

This year's show is especially significant for the club because it is the 40th anniversary of the Federation, and Mrs. Chester Evans, president, Mrs. George L. Martin of Cary, vice-president, and Mrs. Merton Taylor of Chicago, chairman of the flower show committee.

At Arlington Heights exhibit, Charles Kahler & Sons is showing a garden exhibit featuring terraces with trees and a small stream. The upper terrace pool will be surrounded by blue spruce in background and rhododendrons and spreading junipers in the foreground. The lower pool bordered by the lower pool bordered by prairie grasses and flowering crabs. Tree specimens are available.

16 Get Mid-Year Degrees

Students are residents were awarded graduate degrees and seven completed bachelor's degree requirements at the end of the first semester at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb. Diplomas were mailed to those completing their degrees.

Other Arlington Heights residents awarded advanced degrees included Marilyn W. Kane, MSE in home economics; Donald J. Lund, MSE in industry and technology; Walter A. Nystrom, MSE in physical education; Kay B. Pelt, MSE in secondary education; Dewane L. Salter, MSE in elementary education; Lynn E. Salter, MSE in guidance and counseling; John E. Simons, III, MSE in educational administration; and Richard D. Stricker, MSE in separation of reading programs.

ARTHUR E. Kent of Mount Prospect was awarded an MS degree in accounting and Terence L. Shannon, Prospect Heights, received an MSE in industry and technology. Larry K. Paddy, Rolling Meadows, received an MSE in physical education.

Arlington Heights residents awarded bachelor's degrees included Rita J. Kibler, BS in education; Gerald Ogier, BS in education; and Robert R. Rees, BS.

FOUR Mount Prospect residents received bachelor's degrees. They are Robert H. Lakin, BS, Physics; D. Paul, BS, James W. Pearson, BS, and Edward J. Topolinski, BS.

Arlingtones Announce Piano Teacher

Show Date

"Kaleidoscope '67" is the title of this year's production of the Arlingtons' local masterpiece.

The show is scheduled for Saturday, April 15, at 8 p.m. at the auditorium of Glenbrook South High School, East Lake and Piquette roads.

Show chairman John Johnson, 306 N. Wabash, Arlington Heights, said the group chose Glenbrook South because the auditorium's outstanding facilities and large seating capacity would permit a completely different format from any the Arlingtoners have done before.

SEVERAL new, topical numbers have been added in preparation for the show, Johnson said.

A featured quartet will be the Arlington's Conchologists composed of Don Franz, senior, Arlington Heights; John Galt, senior, Mount Prospect; Bob Carr, senior, Franklin Park; and Bill Spengler, senior, Elk Grove Village.

Grove Village. Two additional guest quartets are also included in the program.

Tickets are available now from any Arlington number or from ticket distributors, Ron Cooper, 236-7796, and Chuck Jerns, 333-2519.

In Music Class

Mount Prospect piano teacher Mrs. D.E. Bar has enrolled in a series of classes in piano manufacturing at North Park College. The classes are co-sponsored by the National Piano Foundation of Chicago.

The course includes new techniques in group piano instruction.

Village Pipe & Cigar Shop

Take care of your pipe properly, there is no such thing as a "dead" pipe. Don't burn out the bowl by smoking too hard and too fast. Keep the char on more than 1/8" to 1/4". Have a minute of pipe to clean in smoking, so that each pipe may run.

Band Fund Has $2,397

A financial summary of the fund to send the Wheeling High School band to the Minnesota Aquanet was given at a meeting of the Wheeling Instrumental League. Harry Hagen, treasurer of the band, reported $2,397 in the league's treasury as of March 1.

A deposit of $500 is required for buses from Ritzmiller bus lines. The league has also agreed to donate $2,000 toward additional band uniforms.

The league hopes to realize $12,000 profit from a candy sale, Hagen said.

THE AQUANET trip is scheduled for July 14-16. There is also a possibility that the band will play at Expo 67 in Montreal, according to Dean Deffy, band director.

Liquorice fundraising projects are operation of a concession stand at the April 1 Science Fair and the "Power Tugboat" record hop on May 13.

The Instrumental League will hold its next meeting on April 5.

Engagements

MISS KUEHLER

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Kuehler, former residents of Arlington Heights and now of Barrington, announce the engagement of their daughter Lisa to Raymond A. Maher, Jr. Maher is the son of Raymond A. Maher, Sr., 108 S. Dwyer, Arlington Heights.

Miss Kuehler graduated from Arlington High School, attended Northern Illinois University and is presently employed at Northwestern Mutual Insurance Co.

Maher graduated from St. Victor High School and attended Evan Community College. He is presently serving in the U.S. Air Force.

A September 2 wedding is planned.

MISS ANDERSON

Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Anderson of 1105 Mayfair, Arlington Heights, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Kay to Jack A. Clark Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark Sr., 9 E. Hawthorn, Arlington Heights.

Both are graduates of Arlington High School. Miss Anderson graduated with honors from Northwestern University where she was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Alpha Omicron, Pi social sorority. She received her Masters Degree from Middlebury College Graduate School in Paris, France, and is presently teaching French at Arlington High School.

A November wedding is planned.

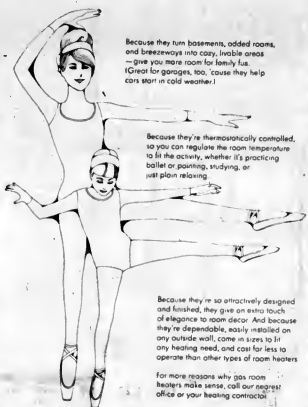

'Lox Boxes'

Each box will sell for $2.50

Invited personally, Mrs. Ruth and Wenz, 894-9408, Hillside, Ill. 60462, and Mrs. Neil Meadows will take orders.

Gas room heaters make sense.

Because they turn basements, odd rooms, and breezeways into cozy, livable areas — give you more room for family fun. (Great for garages, too, cause they help cars start in cold weather.)

Because they're thermostatically controlled, so you can regulate the room temperature to fit the activity, whether it's practicing ballet or painting, studying, or just plain relaxing.

Because they're so attractively designed and finished, they give an extra touch of elegance to room decor. And because they're dependable, easily installed on any outside wall, come in sizes to fit any heating need, and cost less to operate than other types of room heaters.

For more reasons why gas room heaters make sense, call our nearest office or your heating contractor.

Republicans Seek Members

The Wheeling Township Republicans Organization has launched a membership drive in an effort to have a more representative cross-section of suburban opinion, according to Wheeling Township Committee member Eugene Schlickman.

Membership in the organization costs $1 annually, said Schlickman. The dues are used to finance the cost of mailings and office supplies.

Purse Stolen

Tim Moore of Elgin, reported to Arlington Heights Police Saturday that the purse of Barbara Rust of Elgin, had been taken from his car when it was parked in a parking lot at Arlington High School.

Resurrection Hospital honored 42 volunteers at the March 10 meeting of the Women's Auxiliary. Award pins representing from 500 to 5,000 hours of service were presented by Sister Mary Stephanie, C.R., president of the sister governing board.

Award ceremonies were to have taken place at a recognition dinner Feb. 23, but a late arriving blizzard forced cancellation of the dinner and a food program to have been given before the Women's Auxiliary Feb. 24. New date for the food demonstration by Ruth Williams is April 28.

Volunteer groups donated more than 73,000 hours toward patient care last year, and

Rat Alarm Blamed on Corn Stalks

Mount Prospect Public Works Director David Creamer has ordered immediate action on complaints from residents of the 600 block of southbert that large rats are in

This morning, an exterminator was called to the mine and set traps. Creamer said the problem is caused by cornfield bordering the

"The farmer leaves the corn stalks over the winter and the birds feed on them," he said.

To Open Virus Laboratory

Luthers General Hospital, Park Ridge, will open the only virus laboratory in the suburbs area this spring.

Combining clinical and research divisions, the lab will allow expansion of diagnostic services for both in- and out-patients.

The research division will study the nature of viral diseases and seek to develop new diagnostic procedures and vaccines useful in the prevention of certain viral diseases.

Elks' Bunny To Be Busy For Easter

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Arlington Heights Elks Lodge will guide the Easter Bunny to 40 children he might otherwise miss.

On March 17 the Ladies Auxiliary, under the direction of Mrs. James Kaufman and Mrs. James Kelley, will bring the bunny to Clearbrook School for Retarded Children. There will be Easter gifts for all.

The Elks' Easter Bunny Program will continue on Easter morning, when the bunny will take over with a visit to North West Community Hospital.

Raymond Froda, at the Easter Bunny, will distribute Easter bunnies to all the children in the hospital. Mrs. Norma Barnes, director of volunteer services, will act as guide.

AFTER VISITING the children, the bunny will turn to the elderly.

The Elks Easter Bunny program started in Chicago over 10 years ago. It has been so successful that the Illinois Elks Assoc. has adopted it as a statewide function.

Fair Employment Unit's 2-Year Progress Told

The Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission has acted on 86 per cent of the cases filed before it during the past two years.

Chairman Sylvia H. Torff, in the commission's bi-annual report to Gov. Otto Kerner and the General Assembly, said the cases acted on by the commission were dismissed for various reasons.

Ten per cent were settled in conciliation, about five per cent were adjudicated in investigation and two per cent were ordered to arbitration.

The 14 per cent of the cases not completed were in the process of investigation, hearing or review, Torff said.

"The two years covered by this report found the commission devoting most of its efforts and funds to the prosecution and disposition of charges filed with it," he said.

"In this period, however, the commission was also able to conduct a limited program of educational activities in the promotion of fair employment practices."

Torff said that while "encouraging progress" was made toward "equal, non-discriminatory employment opportunity," much remains to be done to strengthen the state's policy, including amendments which would make the law's application more extensive and effective and "enable the commission to carry on a more far reaching and fruitful educational program."

"I need to play in a band," says Joe Bernick as "Newton Brown" in Camco Players' production of "Cloud Nine" by Sam Wills to be presented Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. in Prospect High School Little Theater. Miss Karen Bauser and Mrs. John Grobowski, as his daughter and wife, respectively, aren't counting him to leave the present job and go back to the band. Tickets for this comedy will be available at the door.

Happy Ending to Season

The following is a list Sunday's LaSalle Choir concert given by Mr. Howard E. McElwaine who is currently serving as a board member of the Arlington Heights Community Concert Association. He is also president of its Selection Committee.

BY HOWARD E. McELWAIN
The 1966-67 Community Concert season came to a close Sunday night with the appearance of the Norman LaSalle High School choir.

The program was divided into seven sections, with intermissions between the third and fourth. The sections were:

Works (long works, or a sampler of songs put together with one title). Folk. Male (Male Chorus). Popular. Mad. Spirit.

became apparent after the second number that the program, as listed, was not going to be strictly adhered to. LaSalle explained that the choir is on an extensive 24-week tour, and would be performing in eight or nine cities in order to retain the interest and loyalty of the audience. They had to vary the program from concert to concert.

During the first half of the program, the numbers were rather more modest, or, at best, quite accompaniment. Of these, I think, three were special mention. The "Garden of Eden" (Eugene Ionesco), the "Echo Song" (Eugene Ionesco), and a series of short nonsense pieces by LaSalle.

AFTER the intermission, more serious music was brought onto the stage. They continued with a percussion suite, guitar and accordion. Of these, I think, three were special mention. The "Garden of Eden" (Eugene Ionesco), the "Echo Song" (Eugene Ionesco), and a series of short nonsense pieces by LaSalle.

Each number was greeted with enthusiastic applause which grew as the evening progressed. The audience was rewarded by three encores: "Ship to Wreck," "The Happy Wanderer," and a special number in which the choir ended up singing the words "Good Night."

THE 1966-67 season comes to a close. When the season was about, there was some apprehension among the officers of the organization, as their money is up to whether the membership would approve the choice. But, judging by the number of empty seats at these concerts (very few), I would say that nothing need have been feared.

The following column comes to you through the courtesy of a woman who called to ask a question at high school. She wanted to know where it ranks on the academic ladder.

We could not tell her then and we still can't. We called the director of information for the school system but he was out of town recruiting teachers so whatever ranking the schools now hold can be maintained or improved next year. Education is like a baseball team, you've got to have your scouts out early.

But education does not have team standings or national championships. For instance,

[illegible]

You can count the number of merit scholarships awarded to a particular school but you have to take into consideration that Evinston High School has 5,000 students, a lot more than say school in Dist. 214. You have to consider, too, the economic situation of the community. Many students do not qualify for scholarships because the family income is below average and they cannot show a need for assistance.

cluding Dist. 214, keep track of students and how they fare in college. The type of course under study and the scholastic standards of the college prevent a head-to-head comparison. A student supposedly would fare better studying business administration than medicine.

People like to cite New Trier schools as a measure of excellence but the district there has a tax base that provides around $1,200 a student as compared to $800 or $900 a pupil in Dist. 214. Money helps.

New Trier can send more than 90 per cent of its graduates to college because parents, too, offload it. Dist. 214 is sending about 65 per cent of its graduates to college, but in years back it has been as low as 35 or 40 per cent. Either the schools are getting better or people are getting richer.

Growth is another factor. Dist. 214 is pushed to find teachers, money and classrooms for more students every year. Without such growth, a school could concentrate on improving what it has.

Schools are not ranked like baseball teams but then some days in spring it's difficult to tell which ball clubs will win the season.

Taxpayers may pay for police protection, demand conscientious law enforcement from their police department's support. Or do they?

For others, the policeman on the beat runs the attitude, "enforce the law but not if it reaches out and touches me." It's well run, reliable, responsible, but it's not the police department meant to a community? First, it means that the police are not there to protect, but to protect themselves, relatively safe from organized crime.

It will be means that traffic laws will be enforced "without fear or prejudice" — making the victim's streets safe for the

as a humane and vital part of the village government's community life.

"The department wants to be a part of the community leaders, to exhibit the courage to support the community's policy of equal justice for all, to include all races rather than the selective enforcement.

"The police department is the law rightly enforced, applied to others but have their own misdeeds exposed, without warning or discrimination of those.

"There are no citations for traffic violations," he said, "but from citation for traffic violations." Chief Jenkins said.

Most important, it means that a village with a good police department will enjoy the same of a good place to live — a place where real estate values will continue to climb.

IT'S obvious what the public demands from its police. Less apparent is what the police demand from the public.

In a statement released this week to comment on the death of Elk Ridge Village, Police Chief Harry P. Jenkins put it right on the line.

Commenting on President Johnson's cumbrous, 20-page Commission of Law Enforcement report, recently released, Chief Jenkins outlined clearly the public's obligation to the police:

"First of all, Chief Jenkins said, 'the police department wants to be recognized

CHIEF JENKINS' answer to this, and it is the same thing in most northwest suburban communities, is that the local police are in fact local residents with the same goals — and problems — as citizens who might be employed as bank tellers or in industry.

"Our police department is education minded," Chief Jenkins said. "Applicants are well screened and recruits are trained intensely. But this is only the beginning. Many to be and attend seminars on police science.

There have been various indoctrination programs and specialized schools are used to provide advanced training to specific groups that will benefit the community and the community," Chief Jenkins said.

IT HAS BEEN apparent from our news coverage of this university that the police have turned a gun and a badge and learned lessons on the street to enforce the law" are long

This area is fortunate in having highly trained, well-developed and efficient police icated officers, from the neighborhood patrolman to police chief.

The area has police officers who have made headlines elsewhere. Perhaps one reason that these stories have been broken here is the climate created by the residents themselves in demanding top enforcement — regardless of the chips may fall.

Chief Jenkins said, "I'm not writing what we are certainly most area police chiefs believe is the key to community-police relations is the public that wants impartial enforcement and is willing

"Honor the original dream by always jealously keeping the paper's freedom and intellectual integrity."

St. Patrick's Day -- and the Florida. The Indian legends again. several tales of Brenden voyage

Today is St. Patrick's Day and the Irish are at it again.

It seems that they are not satisfied with the traditional John J. Sullivan and the Blarney Stone. Now they claim that in Irishman — a bearded monk who was the first to St. Brendan discovered America.

Over the last eight, the men in green have been celebrating the discovery of Columbus by 1,000 years. And they that he even beat the Vikings to our shores.

William E. Verity, an amateur anthropologist who has been digging into legends of the Irish, says that in the 5th century in the March issue of Extension Magazine, he found a story of a bearded man named St. Augustine, P. 521-522 A.D.

He bases his story on Indian legends that the early Irish monks were bearded men who were the first to land in Mexico, Peru and northwest Florida. The Indian legends speak medieval tales of Brendan voyaging to America in Ireland.

The findings may or may not be correct. But even if they are not, this won't stop every O'Malley and O'Shaughnessy from celebrating St. Patrick's Day from about eight until dawn.

Oh, the Italians can always retort that once Columbus discovered America, it was the end of the Irish.

But you still couldn't expect any self-respecting Irishman to stay away from the Emerald Isle. It does have a lot to offer the Irishman and his friends to Ireland and his friends in America. All Florida has a beautiful beach in St. Augustine, P. 521-522 A.D.

So what if Columbus got there first. The conquest of Ireland was there first.

And haven't you always thought that it was the Irish who brought the luck of the Irish to America?

Seek Fast Relief for Croup

Croup is a potentially fatal disease that is most commonly seen in children between the ages 2 and 6 years. It is caused by a viral infection that causes inflammation of the larynx causing a barking cough and difficulty breathing at night. The disease is self-limiting and usually passes through the third upper respiratory tract. The most common cause of the disease are haemophilus influenzae type b, parainfluenza virus, and adenovirus. The bacterial is the most common and the most dangerous

In a recent study, this operation (tracheotomy) was necessary in over half of the children with severe bacterial croup. Antibiotics are usually effective against this disease, but the disease is usually enough in the course of the disease.

Tracheotomy is milder and does not require hospitalization, antibiotics or any operation. The child usually recovers in a few days. Attacks of spasmodic croup usually occur at night when the child is sleeping and clear up by morning. They may, however, recur two or three times.

The main thing for parents to do is to keep their child calm. A child's crying may aggravate the condition and cause laborious breathing. If this happens, the child should be calmed at once. If he can't be reached the child should be taken to the hospital emergency

Make as many words of four or more letters out of these letters as you can. In addition find a word that contains all the letters.

It's Back to Basketball For Jim Pollard As New Pro League Beckons Him North

BY DALE HOFMANN

Jim Pollard's return to the game he once loved really let him begin with a telephone call less than two weeks ago.

It was March 6, a Monday, when the phone rang in the Pollard's Mount Prospect home. The caller was an old friend and teammate and one of basketball's great names, George Mikan. Mikan had a proposition that was sure to excite Mount Prospect, one of the most distinguished sports families.

The newly formed American Basketball League, a professional league with big hopes and a host of fanclubs, had just been organized. At that time the league didn't have a full complement of coaches and that was what Mikan's call was about.

"I thought the Chicago Bulls whether he could put my name in the list when the team started getting coaches," Pollard replied. "I said sure. It wouldn't hurt anything to investigate the situation."

So Pollard's name was duly deposited and dated out again about a week later. "I got another call the following Wednesday from Ed Hirsch, the general manager of the league's Minneapolis franchise," Pollard went on. "He said to me to fly there on the weekend. I went to Friday, talked to Mikan in the morning, and spent the rest of the day checking out the situation with sports people in the area."

THE REST job could have been done by the Bulls on Wednesday. Pollard was named coach of the Minneapolis team in the American Basketball League.

Pollard was a natural for the job. He spent eight productive years in the Chicago Bulls, and he was a member of the American Basketball League's first team in 1955. The N.B.A. was his first team, and he was a member of the Chicago Bulls in 1955. The N.B.A. was his first team, and he was a member of the Chicago Bulls in 1955.

Then the Ficken left, and Pollard returned to the game he once loved really let him begin with a telephone call less than two weeks ago.

It was March 6, a Monday, when the phone rang in the Pollard's Mount Prospect home. The caller was an old friend and teammate and one of basketball's great names, George Mikan. Mikan had a proposition that was sure to excite Mount Prospect, one of the most distinguished sports families.

The newly formed American Basketball League, a professional league with big hopes and a host of fanclubs, had just been organized. At that time the league didn't have a full complement of coaches and that was what Mikan's call was about.

"I thought the Chicago Bulls whether he could put my name in the list when the team started getting coaches," Pollard replied. "I said sure. It wouldn't hurt anything to investigate the situation."

So Pollard's name was duly deposited and dated out again about a week later. "I got another call the following Wednesday from Ed Hirsch, the general manager of the league's Minneapolis franchise," Pollard went on. "He said to me to fly there on the weekend. I went to Friday, talked to Mikan in the morning, and spent the rest of the day checking out the situation with sports people in the area."

WITH DALE HORNMAN

YORK AND HOMERWOOD-FLOORSOMER, the Chicago area's last hopes for the high school basketball championship, can be forgiven if they feel just a little bit the middle little boys creating a party of old friends this week.

While the Ducks and Vikings have shown an impressive backlot of talent all season, they just don't have the heritage to be really at home with the jinks of Springfield, Champaign, and Collegeville at the University of Illinois' sparsing penthouse today and tomorrow.

A glance at the tournament record books reveals that five of the teams in this year's Elite Eight have had a big part in running the show almost since its beginning around the turn of the century.

Collegeville, Rockford West, Champaign, Pekin, and Springfield all have at least a piece of several trophy standards. Carbondale is something of a newcomer, but the Terrers have had Southern breeding that makes no match in Illinois basketball circles.

York and Homerwood-Floorsomer will have to counter all that with nothing more than size and firepower, and you can bet they won't have too many more tries in Champaign than they brought along on their own bases.

JUST HOW established are the "Fashionable Five" of the "Elite Eight"? Well, let's take a look.

Only two teams have ever won four state tournaments, and they are undoubtedly about this year. They are Mount Vernon and Champaign. Doctor Bell to Champaign in the super-sectionals is a regrettable failure carried last week.

There are three three-time winners in Iouana's history, and two of them will be around this weekend. Rockford High School did it in 1919, 1929, and 1939, while Springfield took home the trophy in 1953, 1955, and 1959.

Actually Rockford West is the only team in the elite eight that has won the state title.

The northern Illinois split into Rockford East and Rockford West and Champaign West went on to take back-to-back titles in 1955 and 1956. West, by the way, is one of three schools to win twice in a row.

Tenfold winners number among them, and they include Rockford West, of course, and Collegeville. The Cahoks's is one of most recent triange, having been champion in 1943 and 1945.

While Springfield leads the current crop in the number of state titles won, Champaign is known for having tried harder. It holds the record for most consecutive Super A appearances with a string of seven that came from 1943 through 1949.

CHAMPAIGN ALSO shares the record with last year's title Thornton for most consecutive times in a state-final game. The figure is three for Champaign, gained in 1943, 1946, and 1947.

That leads to another record for most consecutive times for a coach to take his team to a state final game. Thornton's Jack Lope holds that mark with his appearance in 1931, 1931, 1932, 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943, 1944, 1945, 1946, 1947, 1948, 1949, 1950, 1951, 1952, 1953, 1954, 1955, 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959, 1960, 1961, 1962, 1963, 1964, 1965, 1966, 1967, 1968, 1969, 1970, 1971, 1972, 1973, 1974, 1975, 1976, 1977, 1978, 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1985, REALTORS

Those Pledged to an Established Code
of Ethics

Realtors are professional in real estate who subscribes to a strict Code of Ethics as a member of the local and state boards and of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

REALTOR'S PLEDGE

Perhaps the best summary of the high ideals which the Realtor embraces is contained in his Realtor's Pledge:

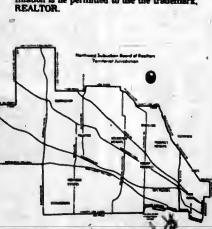

- I AM A REALTOR
- I Pledge Myself:
- To protect the individual right of real estate ownership and to widen the opportunity to enjoy it;
- To be honorable and honest in all dealings;
- To seek to represent my clients by building my knowledge and competence;
- To act fairly towards all in the spirit of the Golden Rule;
- To serve well my community, and through it my country;
- To observe the Realtor's Code of Ethics and conform my conduct to its lofty ideals.

The Realtors Who Advertise On These Pages Stand Ready To Serve You!

BE SURE..

When you are buying or selling real estate, a good way to be sure that you are doing the right thing is to transact your business through a Realtor.

Are you planning to buy or sell real estate? If so, here's the most important fact you should know before making any kind of real estate transaction. It's this: Not every real estate man or woman is a Realtor! You see, Realtors are professional real estate men and women who are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors. These men and women also subscribe to the professional standards of an established code of ethics. What does all this mean to you? Exactly this: When you sell... a Realtor is able to tell you accurately what your real estate is likely to bring... and while to market it for you as quickly as conditions warrant. When you buy... a Realtor is able to find property for you which suits your needs and pocketbook. A Realtor is ready and willing to put his storehouse of real estate knowledge and information at your service. Visit or phone him. A Realtor is not "just another real estate man." He's a member of your local real estate board and that of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. Only by this affiliation is he permitted to use the trademark, REALTOR.
